Silver Anniversary Team

As the Atlantic League prepared for its 25th season, each of the 10 members of the league voted on an elite group of former players to comprise the official ALPB Silver Anniversary team. A total of 25 players were selected as the league celebrated its first quarter century. The original list of 162 nominees was comprised of former Players of the Year, Pitchers of the Year, League Championship MVPs, All-Stars and record holders. The final result was an elite list of the 25 best players to ever grace an Atlantic League ballpark.

The team consists of 16 position players and nine pitchers including six starters and three relievers. The hitters combined for a .295 career batting average, a .477 slugging percentage and an OPS of .844. With 124 years of service to the Atlantic League, the hitters whacked 1,553 home runs, drove in 6,753 runs and mashed d for 4,062 extra-base hits.

The starting pitchers won 263 games with a combined ERA of 3.90. The relievers recorded 423 saves with a 3.02 ERA and averaged nearly a strikeout per inning.

At least one member of this select group was active in each of the Atlantic League's first 25 seasons with four competing in 2023. They include those who were instrumental in the league's birth year in 1998 to those who dotted ALPB line-ups throughout the 2023 season.

A number of the honorees earned Major League service time. Many reached at least the Class AAA level with affiliated clubs. Some were drafted in the first round of the MLB Draft. Others had their first taste of professional baseball as undrafted free agents. Of the 25 honored players, 24 were named to at least one Atlantic League Postseason All-Star team.

The Silver Anniversary team includes six League Championship Series MVPs, 11 Players of the Year, eight Pitchers of the Year, and two players who were on opening day rosters when the league threw its first pitch in 1998.

Atlantic League Silver Anniversary Team Members

RHP John Brownell (Long Island, High Point, 2012-19)

The ALPB Pitcher of the Year in 2015, Brownell is the Atlantic League's all-time leader in complete games and shutouts. He went 67-51 during his career and was the League Championship Series MVP in 2013. He holds league records for the most wins in a playoff series and the most career postseason wins.

RHP Tim Cain (Newark, Bridgeport, Long Island, Camden, 1998-2007)

A member of the Newark Bears on the Atlantic League's inaugural Opening Day in 1998, Cain led the league in wins in 2004 and is the only pitcher in league history to post five 10-win seasons. He finished his career with 74 wins, the second-most in league history, and ranks second all-time in innings pitched and third in strikeouts and starts.

SS Ramon Castro (Newark, York, Bridgeport, 2007-14)

Castro is one of just two players to earn four Postseason All-Star awards during their ALPB career. In addition, he was the League Championship Series MVP in 2010 in helping the York Revolution to the league title. Castro also earned All-Star MVP honors in 2009 while his .318 career average is the fifth-highest in league history.

OF Wellington Dotel (Bridgeport, Sugarland, York 2015-22)

Dotel won ALPB Player of the Year honors in 2015 when he led the league with a .340 batting average and 45 stolen bases. A postseason All-Star in 2015, he has been voted to the All-Star game on three occasions. He won an ALPB Championship in 2018 with the Sugar Land Skeeters.

OF Lew Ford (Long Island 2009-2023)

Ford is the Atlantic League's most recent player to reach 1,000 career hits, achieving that feat in 2022. The ALPB Player of the Year in 2014, Ford holds the season hit record with 189 that same season. He has been voted to three ALPB All-Star games and has won three league championships, all with the Long Island Ducks. In 2022 and again in 2023, Ford became the oldest player in league history to homer, smashing his most recent home run on August 13, 2023, the day after his 47th birthday.

OF Blake Gailen (Lancaster, 2012-21)

Gailen was named the 2012 ALPB Player of the Year while leading the league in batting average at .338. He has played in three All-Star games and earned four postseason All-Star awards while also being named the 2012 Baseball American Independent Player of the Year. Gailen maintained a .302 career batting average over his eight seasons in the Atlantic League and was a league champion in 2014 with Lancaster.

LHP Mike Guilfoyle (Bridgeport 1998-2003)

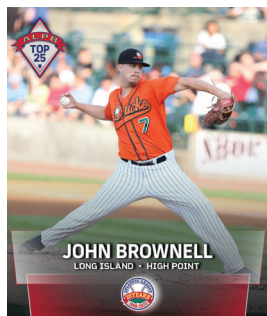

Guilfoyle, like Tim Cain, was on the field the night the Atlantic League played its first game in 1998. A stellar reliever, Guilfoyle led the league in saves three times and owns the mark for most career saves by a lefty with 122. A three-time All-Star, Guilfoyle helped the Bridgeport Bluefish to an ALPB Championship in 1999.

OF Courtney Hawkins (Sugar Land, Lexington 2018-22)

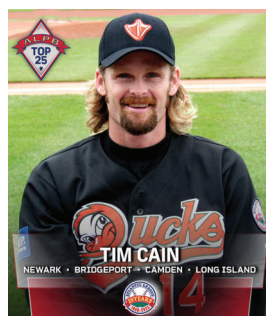

Hawkins had a magnificent 2022 season, earning Player of the Year honors and tying the league season home run mark with 48. He earned Postseason All-Star honors in both 2021 and '22 and has reached 100 career homers in just four seasons. He won league titles in 2018 with Sugar Land and in 2021 with the Lexington Legends. Hawkins was the Baseball American Independent Player of the Year in 2022.

RHP Jon Hunton (Lancaster, Somerset, Long Island, 2007-17)

The Atlantic League's career saves leader, Hunton was a two-time All-Star and three-time league leader in saves. His 49 saves in 2014 and 167 career saves are each the league standard. He holds the league mark for the most saves in a postseason series and his 10 playoff saves are more than any other pitcher in league history.

Silver Anniversary Team

RHP Lincoln Mikkelsen (Camden, Atlantic City, Somerset, 2001-07)

Mikkelsen is the only pitcher in league history to be named Player of the Year, earning that honor in 2006. A two-time Postseason All-Star, he was the league Pitcher of the Year in 2002 and 2006. He owns one of the five no-hitters in league history and played in four All-Star games while leading the league in wins in 2002 and 2004. A five-time Pitcher of the Month, Mikkelsen is second in career ERA and fifth in career wins.

C Francisco Morales (Long Island, Camden, 2000-03)

Morales was a three-time Postseason All-Star and a career .290 hitter with 73 home runs

OF Glenn Murray (Nashua, Bridgeport 1999-2008)

Murray has been the Atlantic League's all-time home run leader since June 2003 when he hit his 88th career homer to pass Jose Viera. With 158 career homers, Murray is the league's career leader while ranking third all-time in RBI and sixth in extra-base hits. Murray earned five All-Star game appearances and was the Player of the Year in 1999.

1B Telvin Nash (York, Charleston 2015-23)

The league's Player of the Year in 2019 and co-MVP of the 2017 League Championship Series, Nash spent six seasons in York before joining Charleston in 2023. Nash hit .294 with 41 homers and 100 RBI in earning MVP honors in 2019. His 77 extra base hits that year is the league record and his 124 career homers puts him tied for fifth all-time.

UTIL Ray Navarrete (Somerset, Long Island 2005-13)

The 2006 ALPB Player of the Year, Navarrete helped Long Island to league championships in 2012 and 2013 while also claiming a title with the Somerset Patriots in 2005. Navarrete is one of just two players with four Postseason All-Star berths which he achieved during his nine seasons in the league. Navarrete is the league's all-time leader in doubles and extra-base hits while ranking second in RBI and third in home runs.

SS Bryant Nelson (Bridgeport, Long Island, Camden, Lancaster, York, So. Md, 2006-16)

Nelson is one of just four players in ALPB history to amass over 1,000 hits. He was selected to four All-Star games and he is the all-time league record-holder in at-bats and games played.

3B Jeff Nettles (Somerset 2003-12)

Nettles holds the league record with seven All-Star game selections and is the only two-time League Championship Series MVP, winning the honor with Somerset in 2003 and 2009. The first player to reach the 1,000-hit mark, Nettles is a three-time league champion and the all-time leader in RBI and total bases.

2B Andres Perez (Newark, Bridgeport, York, 2009-16)

Perez was voted to four All-Star teams and also earned four Postseason All-Star awards. A two-time league leader in doubles, he ranks eighth in league history in career doubles and posted a .299 lifetime batting average.

RHP Dwayne Pollok (Lancaster 2012-13)

Pollok's time in the ALPB was short, just two seasons, but he was a Postseason All-Star in each and the league's Pitcher of the Year in 2012. He led the league in victories in both seasons and set the record for wins in a season with 18 in 2013. Pollok's .842 winning percentage (32-6 record) is the highest among starters in league history.

1B Josh Pressley (Somerset, Sugar Land 2007-13)

Pressley was the ALPB Player of the Year in 2008 after leading the league in batting average and home runs. He played in four consecutive ALPB All-Star games from 2008-11 and helped the Somerset Patriots to league championships in 2008 and 2009.

C Luis Rodriguez (Long Island, Nashua, Bridgeport, 2004-15)

Known as "The Machete" for his powerful throwing arm, Rodriguez caught more games than any catcher in league history (788) and was voted to the 2010 All-Star game

SS Victor Rodriguez (Somerset, Newark, Long Island, Bridgeport, York, 2004-10)

Rodriguez is one of the top hitters in league history, leading the league in batting average twice and holding the highest career average in league history at .343. The only two-time ALPB Player of the Year, Rodriguez won a pair of league titles with Newark in 2007 and York in 2010.

C Isaias Tejeda (York, Lexington, Charleston 2016-23)

A Postseason All-Star in 2017 and 2019, Tejeda holds the league's second-longest hitting streak at 28 games in 2016. A member of the Charleston Dirty Birds in 2023, he owns a .310 career batting average which ranks among the top 15 lifetime averages in league history.

RHP Daryl Thompson (So. Maryland 2012-23)

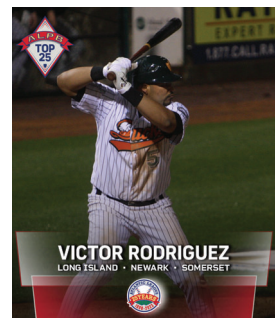

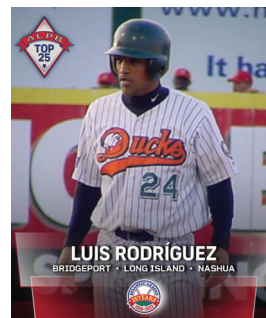

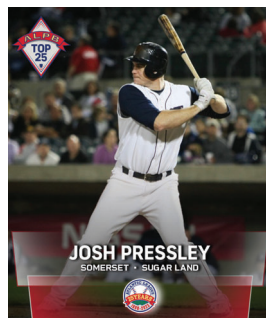

No pitcher in Atlantic League history has accomplished what Thompson has. He is a three-time ALPB Pitcher of the Year who is still hurling and in 2023, extended his league record to 97 career wins. He has led the league in wins three times and been named to four All-Star games and three Postseason All-Star teams. Thompson is the league's all-time leader not just in wins but also in innings, strikeouts, games started and shutouts.

RHP Corey Thurman (York 2008-15)

Thurman won 66 games in his eight years in the Atlantic League and led the league in victories with 14 in 2012. He pitched in three All-Star games and was instrumental in York's back-to-back league championships in 2010 and 2011. A three-time All-Star, Thurman ranks second in career starts, fourth in career wins, strikeouts and innings pitched.

Jim Ed Warden (So. Maryland 2009-14)

A three-time Postseason All-Star, Warden led the ALPB in saves in 2010 and 2011 and ranks second league history with 134 saves. He appeared in the seventh-most games of any pitcher in ALPB history and concluded his career with 20 wins and 134 saves in six seasons.

Items

Red and Blue Stitched Baseball: Pitcher D.J. Mitchell of Bridgeport began the Atlantic League's 2015 All-Star Game on July 8 at Harbor Yard in Bridgeport, Conn. and debuted the league's new red and blue stitched baseball. The red and blue stitches were a throwback to those used on American League balls used through the 1933 season. While American League balls featured red and blue stitching in the early 20th century, National League baseballs utilized red and black stitches. In 1934, the leagues each moved away from the auxiliary colors and went solely with red stitching.

Tony Thomas' cleats: The Atlantic League in 2019 began using an experimental rule that allowed batters to advance to first base on any passed ball or wild pitch, regardless of the count. The first player to "steal first" was Southern Maryland's Tony Thomas. On July 13th, 2019 in the sixth inning, Thomas watched a ball sail past the Lancaster Barnstormers' catcher, Anderson De La Rosa. De La Rosa did not move to retrieve the ball, and after a moment of hesitation, Thomas took off for first. When his red and white New Balance cleats with the initials "TTJ" struck first base, he went down in baseball history as the first to steal first.

Umpire's ear piece: The Atlantic League was the first professional league to use the Automated Ball Strike system. It started on July 25, 2019 when home games hosted by the High Point Rockers, Lancaster Barnstormers and Long Island Ducks used the ABS technology. The ALPB donated the earpiece used by home plate umpire Fred De Jesus in the New Britain Bees at Long Island Ducks contest, the first regular season game to utilize ABS to call balls and strikes. The earpiece is symbolic of the new technology the ALPB featured in games played in the second half of the 2019 season and throughout the 2021 campaign.

Two-signature ball: The Atlantic League baseball is unique in that it carries two signatures, those of league founder Frank Boulton, as well as league president Rick White.

Drake baseball: In 2022, the Atlantic League became the first contemporary professional baseball league to produce its own official baseball. The Drake baseball was the result of over three years of extensive research and development. The ball is named after Ellis Drake (1839-1912) who conceived the two-piece, interlocking figure-eight cover design.

Lexington pitching mound: As part of its relationship as a partner league of Major League Baseball, the Atlantic League used the 61'6" distance as an experimental rule during the second half of the 2021 season. The Lexington Legends hosted the High Point Rockers on Tuesday, August 3, 2021 at Legends Ballpark in Lexington, Ky. with the Rockers posting a 13-4 win. Lexington starting pitcher Shawn Blackwell was the first Atlantic League player to unleash a pitch from the new distance. High Point centerfielder Johnny Field flew out to leftfielder Omar Artsen on the second pitch from Blackwell.

Kelsie Whitmore: A pitcher and outfielder for the Staten Island Ferryhawks in 2022 and 2023, Whitmore was not only the first woman to play in the Atlantic League but she reached the highest level of professional baseball that any female has attained. Enshrined in the Baseball Hall of Fame is a batting helmet worn by Whitmore when she recorded her first hit for the FerryHawks on Sept. 3, 2022 and the batting gloves she wore that game.

Individuals

Rickey Henderson: Henderson played two seasons with the Newark Bears in 2003 and 2004. Even as a 45-year-old in 2004, Henderson hit .281 with nine home runs and 31 RBI while leading the league in walks with 96. During his Hall of Fame career, Henderson spent 24 seasons in the Major Leagues and is considered baseball's greatest leadoff hitter and base runner. He holds MLB records for career stolen bases, runs scored, walks and leadoff home runs. Henderson led the 1989 Oakland Athletics and the 1993 Toronto Blue Jays to World Series championships. He was the MVP of the Atlantic League All-Star game in 2003 and was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 2009.

Tim Raines: Raines managed the Newark Bears in 2009 and 2010, leading the 2009 club to the Atlantic League playoffs. As a player, Raines was in the Major Leagues from 1979-2002 and spent 13 seasons with the Montreal Expos. He was a seven-time All-Star, led the league in stolen bases four times and won a National League batting championship. Raines was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 2017.

Gary Carter: Carter managed the Long Island Ducks during the 2009 season, leading the club to a 74-66 record and a berth in the Atlantic League playoffs. Carter spent 19 years playing in the Major Leagues, suiting up primarily for the Montreal Expos and New York Mets. An outstanding defensive catcher, Carter helped the Mets to the 1986 World Championship. He was one of just four men to ever be named as a captain of the Mets. Carter passed away in February 2012 at the age of 57 after a long battle with brain cancer. Carter was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 2003.
